

The Policy of FCC to review the cross-ownership ban gives bad contribution to strengthen american democracy. The Policy tends to serve business interests and not guarantee the public interests.

This policy is not conducive to create 'one world many voices'. it just creates many voices for one interest. so I join with many people ask for the FCC not to review the cross ownership ban.